CLRE Advisors Joins Forces with CTR Partners

ATLANTA, GA – July 2026 – CTR Partners announced that CLRE Advisors has joined CTR Partners. CLRE founder Ronnie Cannon has been named a Partner at the firm. This strategic move marks a significant step in the ongoing growth of CTR's relationship-driven tenant services.

With more than two decades of experience in commercial real estate, Cannon built CLRE Advisors into a respected advisory platform serving high growth companies across Atlanta and its surrounding suburbs. By joining CTR Partners, he brings that platform, client base, and market insight under the CTR banner, helping expand the firm's advisory capabilities and advance its mission: transforming relationships to drive lasting results.

"At CTR, we understand this business isn't just about buildings — it's about the people who grow and prosper inside them," said Rob Coatsworth, Partner, at CTR Partners. "Ronnie and the CLRE Advisors team embody that belief. Their integrity, experience, and client first approach align perfectly with our values of flexibility, nimbleness, and trust."

"People are losing faith in the commercial real estate business," Cannon said. "CLRE Advisors was built on the idea of earning trust through long term relationships and results. Joining forces with CTR Partners is a natural extension of that vision—allowing us to serve more clients, with more resources, while staying true to a relationship first, purpose driven approach."
